Theatre Has Successful Comedy

Observations...

By UDELL

Hancock County law enforcement officials have been kept pretty busy since they took office last week. The body of an unidentified man who committed suicide is being held by the coroner, Emil Piazza, until some positive identification is made. His fingerprints have been sent to authorities for further identification. The man, who was being held in the County Jail on charges of vagrancy and who was also being held as a material witness, hung himself in his cell. Last Thursday, after we had gone to press, news reached us of the suicide of Willie Jackson, Negro resident of this city. And then, Monday night, Iona Jones was murdered at the County Line Club by Carl Eastman. He was brought to the County Jail here, and the next morning he was found in his cell with slashed wrists. He has recovered enough to be brought to trial next week.

At a meeting of the City and County law enforcement officials and the Mayor and Commission Council Monday morning, it was voted that every bar in Hancock County be placed under curfew and no intoxicating beverages could appear on the counter. The local establishments must be closed by 1:00 a.m. on weekdays and 2:00 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. Nothing is to be sold after these hours. This action is rather unusual. You have to take a product off of your shelves, but it can still be sold from under the counter.

Our City fathers are once again serving the people to the best of their ability. Front street, from Main to State, is being widened and straightened. They are going to start by taking 18 inches off at Main and continue to nothing at State. The engineers' survey was made this week and the only thing needed now is permission from the State to proceed along the beach. This will make parking a lot easier on the beachfront, and will give a little more room for passing motorists. The sidewalk is being extended down Main to the area that has been without a walk for some time now. While speaking of the progress of our City under the capable supervision of our officials, Mogabgab and Shrouds have been named architect and are now drawing up preliminary sketches for the new elementary school building. The badly-needed building will be erected across the street from the present school, in front of the Bay St. Louis Teen-Age club. Approximately six rooms will be built.

Last week, through an error, we omitted the name of Emil Piazza, newly-elected coroner, who took his oath of office with the County officials. This was not intended, and was an oversight.

The first home basketball game for St. Stanislaus and St. Joseph Academy will be played tonight at 7:00 o'clock at the St. Stanislaus gymnasium. Their opponents will be the Kiln teams.

More than 800 feet of defective 4" gas line has been replaced between Romaneda and the Vay St. Louis Waveland line, and between Avenue B and the John street and Eastbrook. More line will be replaced in order to increase the efficiency of the gas department.

Farm Bureau Sets "Kick-Off" Meet

A. J. Franklin, Marketing Specialist, will be the speaker for the Hancock County Farm Bureau "Kick Off" meeting to be held Friday, January 25, at 10:00 a.m. in the R. E. A. Building.

The purpose of this meeting is to get new members for the Hancock County Farm Bureau.

Refreshments will be served. Everyone is urged to attend.

Awarded Infantry Badge

Sergeant Charles Bole Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edith Bole, was awarded the Infantry Combat badge in Korea. Sergeant Bole has been serving on the front in Korea for the past four months.

Mrs. Bole Jr., the former Inez Kingston, is residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kingston, during his absence.

Closing the season for the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre, "Ezra's Ghost" presented one of the best comedies shown on the local boards.

The play is fun from the opening curtain until the final ring down, and the laughs are continuous.

The cast does an excellent job of entertainment and they deserve much credit for their efforts. George Hainey, a newcomer to Bay St. Louis and the theatre, gives a performance equal to veteran actors. His underlying sense of humor adds much to his portrayal of the "Ghost of Gramercy Square."

Carol Turner gives an adequate and pleasing interpretation in the leading female role. Her youth adds a sparkle that endears her to the audience.

Always to be enjoyed, are the appearances of Dennis Tonkel, who gives many a laugh in this play, and Phil Allison who can always be counted on to give a good performance. He is an excellent foil in a stuffed shirt to Tonkel's breezy casualness.

Highlighting the show in a smaller role is John Seaford, Ezra's Linde does a nice piece of work in the role she portrays. Jerry Kiefer and Paul Loup add quite a few laughs as the "Woodie Ghosts" who come down from Heaven to console the earth-bound Gramercy Ghost.

Alma Schmetz and Imogene Allison are a comedy team who provoke much mirth. Lee Esau, who has shown her ability in past plays, gives her usual expert performance. Marie Lizana, another newcomer to the Theatre, adds much to the finale.

Stars behind the scenes are J. J. Adams and Camille Schaefer whose light and sound effects give a professional touch to the show. Caroline Kiefer was director.

For laughs and good entertainment, be sure to see "Gramercy Ghost" this Friday and Saturday at your Little Theatre.

During the early days of this January glass posters are springing up along the highways of Mississippi bearing the slogan: "The Family That Prays Together - Stays Together." Few Mississippians will dispute the fundamental truth of this phrase. One hundred such posters in effect announce a Crusade of Prayer in the State of Mississippi. The Crusade is now underway in Bay St. Louis.

The Most Rev. R. O. Gerow, from the Bishop's House in Jackson, inaugurated the Crusade with a pastoral letter the opening paragraph of which reads as follows: "Our times are seething with unrest. Never perhaps in the last fifteen centuries has there been rife such international strife, such economic contention, such domestic instability, and such religious persecution. In proportion to his material progress Man seems to have forgotten God. The struggle for peace and contentment, has been in vain because God has been forgotten. Human efforts alone are unavailing to bring peace and order. It is time for us to recall the words of Almighty God, 'Unless the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.' (Ps. 128, 1)"

In seeking for a period in history to compare with our own, Bishop Gerow thus goes back to the closing days of the persecutions in the pagan Roman Empire. The point is one for thought; since that period religion has never been so widely disregarded and persecuted throughout the world as today. Jews and Christians alike languish in jails and concentration camps behind the Iron Curtain. In the Far East the Communist campaign against all religion daily gathers momentum. As to the unrest and decay of morals within our own borders, any reader of the daily newspapers can testify.

The ultimate solution to these evils and problems will be found only in God. Man has access to God through prayer. The fundamental unit of all human society is the family. Hence a Crusade of Family Prayer.

To inaugurate the Crusade, the Catholics of Mississippi are holding three giant rallies. Persons of every faith are urged to attend the rallies and to participate in the Crusade. The rallies will be held at Greenville, Mississippi on the school grounds of St. Joseph's School on Thursday, January 24, at Jackson, Mississippi, on East Amite Street between West and Lamar Streets, on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 27 at 2:00 o'clock; at Biloxi, Mississippi, at the U. S. O. Center on Sunday evening, January 27 at 8:00 o'clock. At all rallies Father Patrick Peyton will be the principal speaker. Father Peyton has an international reputation as the author and director of "The Family Theater," "The Joyful Hour," and "The Triumphant Hour." The greatest names of stage and screen have cooperated with Father Peyton in extending his Crusade of Prayer around the world. It now flourishes in the United States, Canada, Australia and England.

The Crusade itself will continue through February 17. The prayers that are pledged during the Crusade, it is hoped, will continue long after. Catholic families are being asked to pledge themselves to the daily recitation of the Rosary for the family circle. Others are being asked to consider the beginning the custom of daily family prayer.

DIMES MAKE DOLLARS

During the past seven months, our County has had its first close encounter with that dreaded plague, POLIO. With four cases among children between the ages of 14 months and ten years living in scattered sections, we have become more conscious of the meaning of the word POLIO than ever before; and have shuddered each time we've read of the increase in the number of cases over any previous year's epidemic record.

The National Foundation for the prevention and cure of Polio was created to provide for any adult or child stricken with Polio. The average cost for even a minor case in which paralysis affects the patient in only the limb runs into several thousands of dollars. Patients in Polio Centers anywhere are given preferred attention by specially trained nurses, physical therapists and hospital personnel, generally in a building set aside especially for their care. Because of this extra care, the Foundation requires enormous funds and each year finds the month of January given over to the campaign known as "The March of Dimes." Of course, we all know that "Dimes make dollars," but in this day of inflated times, we are asked to contribute our dollars and as many of them as we can in order to make up the great deficit which the Foundation is suffering because of the increase in the number of Polio cases in the year 1951.

During the unusually warm summer, which we are trying to forget, can't we recall that each time anyone of us nursed a sick child in our homes, how panic-stricken we became when a child running a temperature and suffering with "sore throat," cried that its leg or arm ached. How we begged our doctor with the thought this might be Polio! How we petitioned our God for hope against its being Polio! And how grateful we were when the spell of illness was over, and our little one was running about again and waving healthy arms about in the exuberance and vitality which healthy children possess.

Hancock County's campaign for funds for Polio is lagging! Let's not let it down! Let's dig deep and make a sacrifice! Let's do without some pleasure or luxury and get that great feeling of having helped someone back to health by your generous donation.

Your donation no matter by what sacrifice can never make up for the agony endured by those who have waited outside a doctor's closed door for the awful verdict pronouncing your loved one's affliction as "POLIO"; the hours of agony during two weeks of isolation period; the final months of gradually knowing and realizing the extent of paralysis which has set in, and the endless time in which you await the result of therapy and surgery which perhaps will be involved in restoring the use of a patient's body again to full or partial activity.

Don't let your March of Dimes Campaign down! Your donation couldn't be contributed toward a greater cause! Write that check out today, or bring your donation to your Chapter Chairman, Mrs. Theo. Tudury, immediately. Any amount will be greatly appreciated and help swell the Polio Fund.

Legislative Views

By WALTER JAMES PHILLIPS

The first week of the Legislature was devoted mainly to organizational work. The Honorable Walker Sellers, of Bolivar County, a veteran Legislator, was unanimously elected, unopposed, as Speaker of the House. The speaker is the presiding officer of the House, and one of his chief responsibilities is the appointment of various committees to conduct hearings, and investigation of the bills introduced. A Sergeant-At-Arms and Doorkeeper were elected, as well as the State Librarian and Postmaster. Few bills were introduced the first week and no copies are yet available for studying. Therefore, the contents are unfamiliar to this writer, from the title, however, it is indicated that the

INFORMATION

When I was elected Supervisor of Beat 5, I was determined to keep the people informed of the actions of the Board in regard to operating the County. I have always felt that the people really wanted to know what was going on, for after all, any actions of the Board concern the taxpayers directly. I urge you to attend the Board meetings whenever possible.

You are paying eleven and one half (11½) mills excessive tax, which amounts to about $60,000 a

NOT TO EXCEED SEVEN (7) MILLS. This 1½ mill is over and above the maximum of 7 mills. Each October, which is the beginning of the fiscal year, your tax levies are fixed by the Board of Supervisors. This excess has been collected from you for several years, and in October 1951 was levied to be collected this year from you. At the first meeting of this Board, on January 7, 1952, I made a motion to cut off this tax levy at once - but my motion received no second and was consequently lost.

For your information, I am passing along to you a ruling I received from the Attorney General under date of January 8, 1952. Quote, "Section 9880, Mississippi Code of 1942, specifically provides that the county wide levy or levies for the maintenance and/or construction of roads and bridges shall not exceed seven mills. The statute is clearly written and this office has repeatedly held on previous occasions that it did not authorize a seven mill levy for roads and/or roads and bridges plus an additional levy for bridges, but that

The seven mill limit was fixed by the statute for both roads and bridges. Therefore, as stated, it has been and is the often stated opinion of this office that a levy above seven mills for roads and/or bridges is not authorized by the statutes of this state. Of course, any taxpayer may contest the levy for such purposes above the seven mill limit.

I am not advising you what steps to take, but I am paying my taxes under protest.

At this meeting will be read the various yearly reports of the organizations including the Women's Circles, the Sunday School, the Treasury report, and the Cemetery Committee reports. There will be an election of Warden and Vestrymen for the 1952 year. Confirmed church members make up the electorate votes for church officers.

PLAN SUPPER

The general public is cordially invited to attend this supper. Plates are modestly priced at $1.00 per person. Funds from the supper will go into the Mothers' Club treasury and will be used for school supplies as needed.

At the meeting of the Mothers' Club held last week, Father J. P. McElade made a forceful and impressive talk on the importance of the Family Rosary Crusade. Officers for the Mothers' Club for 1952 are: Mrs. Herman Sellers, president; Miss Jane Lang, treasurer; and Mrs. John David, Secretary.

ST. MONICA CIRCLE HEARS REPORT ON ADOPTED CHILDREN

When the St. Monica Circle of the Trinity Episcopal Church met on Monday, January 7, an extensive report on the Bazaar and Dinner was given. Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Sr., expressed satisfaction over the success of the undertaking.

A report from the Orphanage at Natchez concerning the welfare of the two Bane children adopted by the church circles was given. Letters expressing appreciation of gifts sent the children at Christmas time were also read. From the reports it would seem that both children are well, happy and adjusted.

Mrs. Blacklock gave a resume of articles of interest appearing in Church News and Mrs. Dorothy Dennis made a plea for subscriptions to the Cathedral Age, which is the publication for the benefit of members of the National Cathedral Association.

Mrs. Taylor closed the meeting with a prayer of benediction, and following the adjournment Mesdames Richard O. Helstand and Lynan Page as co-hostesses served refreshments.

ST. MONICA CIRCLE GIVES FAREWELL LUNCHEON

A farewell luncheon, complimentary to Mrs. Willis Gaylord Clark and Mrs. Ed Ireland, was given in Annie's Restaurant at Henderson Point by the St. Monica Circle of Trinity Episcopal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ireland, who have long been residents of Pass Christian and active in church work, will make their home in St. Louis, Missouri, where Mr. Ireland was transferred by his company.

MRS. CLARK'S HOME MEETING PLACE FOR ST. CECILIA CIRCLE

The St. Cecilia Circle of Trinity Episcopal Church, of which Mrs. Paul Torgeson, Sr., is president, met recently in the home of Mrs. Willis Gaylord Clark. Guests at the meeting included Mrs. Dorothy Dennis who spoke on the National Episcopal Cathedral in Washington, and Mrs. Bunch, who resides in Pineville and is a representative of the Stanley Products Corporation. Mrs. Bunch explained to the ladies her company's plan for earning through the party-hostess method.

Officers who will serve in 1952 in the St. Cecilia Circle are Mrs. Paul Torgeson, Sr., president; Miss Hazel Wood, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Dow Ripley, organist; Mrs. Charles Farragut, Missions.

Following the business and program, Mrs. Clark displayed her unique, "Friendship Tree" literally covered with cards from Pass Christian people, and displayed her Christmas gifts which included a beautiful calfskin bag given by the two church circles.

Mrs. W. S. Van Landingham and Mrs. Brunch were welcomed as new circle members. Work planned for the circle's year included the making of hot water bottle covers and bandages in the field of foreign mission work.

Tea, coffee and pecan cookies were served by Mesdames Frank Wittman and Walter Woodruff.

PERSONALS

Dr. Willis Gaylord Clark, who has been ill for the past several days, is said to be gradually improving. It is expected that he will be well enough to resume his duties in church next Sunday morning.

The mother of Miss Adele Bleiberg, who developed pneumonia a few days ago, has been taken to Memorial hospital in Gulfport for treatment and nursing care.

Mickey Conery and Larry Reid, both of Henderson Avenue, in Pass Christian, have joined the Navy. They will receive training in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Richard O. Helstand is in Florida on business.

Mrs. Fred Holcolfin was a recent visitor to New Orleans.

Joe Albert Allen, who was ill with pneumonia for several days, has now returned to school. Joe Albert was most appreciative of the attentions received during his illness. He is especially grateful to Dr. Clark for the altar flowers and the candle; to Dr. George Byrne for his excellent attention, and to all the good friends who sent cards, boxes, toys, fruit and messages. All these things helped to bring about a speedy recovery.

Bishop Duncan M. Gray of Jackson, visited in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Willis G. Clark last week. Bishop Gray met with the Church Vestry in an effort to assist in finding a successor to Dr. Clark who has resigned.

Mrs. Henry Lindsey, teacher of the sixth grade in the Pass Christian public school was away from her desk several days due to an attack of influenza. Mrs. Lindsey is now back with her students.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kalif were recent New Orleans visitors.

Mrs. John DeMetz has recovered from a recent illness.

"Buster" Conery has changed jobs. He is now employed in Benny French's Henderson Point establishment.

Two new girls have enrolled in the Trinity Sunday School. They are Clarisse and Johanna Gould, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gould of Long Beach. Mr. Gould is an artist and sculptor.

Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ellis have purchased the home formerly owned by Mrs. Estelle Chachere of New Orleans. They expect to move into their new home (No. 17) Sherman Drive, within the next two or three months.

Mrs. Ray Cantrell and children Wanda and Sue were recent week-enders in their home on Sherman Drive.

Charles Farragut, Jr., was in his mother's home a few days before returning to San Francisco.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP GETS PINS

When girl scouts of Miss Adele Bleiberg's troop met Monday, nine girls received their tenderfoot pins. Troop insignia and troop numerals were given out that the girls might get them sewed on their uniforms. A definite date has not been announced for the Court of Awards, however, many scouts are working toward merit badges.

Rules have been made that no two girls of the same family may join Troop 1, and girls joining the troop must purchase full uniform.

WANDA CANTRELL GIVEN A DUDE RANCH PARTY

On the occasion of her sixth birthday little Wanda Cantrell was feted with a dude-ranch party given at the Cantrells' Pass Christian home. Wanda is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cantrell of New Orleans and Pass Christian.

Mrs. D. A. Neal, also of New Orleans, assisted Mrs. Cantrell in converting the home into ranch atmosphere.

The young ranchers' party started at 3 o'clock, Saturday, January 5. They were outfitted from head-to-toe in clothing favored by such personalities as Hop-A-Long Cassidy, Roy Rogers and Gene Autry. Virtually everybody was toting a couple of shooting irons in jewel-studded holsters. There was a colorful array of neck-wear, ten-gallon hats, and hand-tooled high-heeled boots. Wanda met her guests wearing tan riding breeches and a green plaid shirt, white holsters and all the trimmings.

George Dawson Jr. of New Orleans drove over for the occasion, accompanied by his mother. Other dudes appearing in the corral were Sue Cantrell, sister of Wanda; Judy and Edward Gamard, children of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Gamard II; Augusta and Hudson Wolfe, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson G. Wolfe; Archie and Sue Smith, children of Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Smith Jr.; Barbara and oe Ebert Allen, children of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Allen; Margaret Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Ellis; and Alita Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Foster.

Prize winners in the Round-Up were Augusta Wolfe, who managed to ring the most clothes pins in a milk bottle; Edward Gamard III Merry-Go-Round winner; and Joe Ebert Allen, who knew where to put the donkey's tail.

Chow was served to the tune of "Dime and Get It—maybe well, pitch it out," plates, cups and napkins were vivid with Hop-A-Long and his horse.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION FOR CHRIS WAINWRIGHT

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Wainwright was made festive Sunday afternoon when Chris Michael's fifth birthday was celebrated.

Colorful American and Confederate flags waved on the lawn and multicolored balloons floated atop the porte cochere. Happy birthday inscribed caps were worn by the young guests, who were given whistles as party favors. Chris Michael's cake and ice cream was served the following guests: Edward Gamard III, Judy Gamard, Margaret, Mike and Bobby Stewart, Gloria and Ann Crank, Mary Ann, Susan and Jimmie Southerland, Al and Johnnie Hodges, Pat Boyd, Janie Martin, Johnnie Begue and Barbara Allen, also Mr. and Mrs. Al Hodges, Mrs. Roland Martin, Mrs. Fordie Southerland, Lt. and Mrs. Dale Crank and Mr. and Mrs. Bill McDonald.

Injured on Bridge

Home's Gray of Henderson Point suffered numerous injuries last week when a four thousand pound concrete bucket fell on him while he was working on the new bridge across the bay. He was taken to Memorial hospital by Fahey's ambulance.

House Of David To Appear Here

The World Famous Bearded House of David Basketball Team will make its appearance here at the Bay High Gymnasium when they meet the O. K. Transfer team of Gulfport, January 18 at 8:00 p. m., in a basketball game that promises to be the outstanding treat of the season.

The House of David team needs no introduction as they annually tour the United States, Canada and Mexico, playing over 200 games each season, against all type of opposition and are consistently a winner, as their record for the past twelve years will verify. The Bearded boys played two thousand two hundred seventy-nine games, winning a total of two hundred fifty-eight games, and losing only one hundred twenty-one which is a pretty fair country average in anybody's league.

The fun loving Davids not only present high class basketball, they also keep the fans in an uproar with their eccentricities, comedy actions and clever line of chatter, while the game is in progress. Probably the most famous of their tricks is the hidden ball in which the bearded boys gather in much the same form as a football huddle on the floor and the basketball disappears. Football, Baseball and even Hunting gets into the act before the game is over.

Hy Cohen from Michigan State Teachers College is a new addition to the Davids taking over a spot that was vacated by Durable Deak Horn who has been recalled to the Military Service. Hy is from Detroit, Michigan and played there under Chic Sacks famous Detroit pro coach. Hy graduated from college after three years of regular duty in 1949 and should prove a road basketball player in years to come. Cohen is very fast and is a pleasing ball player to see on the court, his ability to handle the ball meets with the approval of the fans who love to see the ball handled with speed.

With a star-studded line-up the fans will see one of the tallest teams in the entire country in action and one that combines comedy, basketball, precision, education and the love of the game all wrapped up in one evening's offering.

Margaret A. Favre Observes Birthday

Margaret Ann Favre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Favre, celebrated her eleventh birthday Wednesday, January 9, with a party at the home of her parents.

Helping Margaret celebrate were 33 of her classmates. A color scheme of pink and yellow was carried out in the refreshments and decorations.

Adults attending were Mesdames Ruby Thomas, Eunice Fayard and Thelma Ellington.

The Oil and Gas Industry Spends $160,000⁰⁰ EVERY DAY
in Mississippi

Last year, the growing oil and gas industry put more than $50 million into circulation in Mississippi—over $160,000 during every working day of the year. These dollars are ringing the cash registers of every business up and down the state.

An annual oil and gas payroll of $15 million, for 5,000 Mississippi employees, buys food, housing and other family needs. Another $18 million goes to 25,000 royalty and land owners in many parts of the state. These payments mean increased income opportunities for every Mississippian.

The $10 million paid last year in Mississippi taxes by the oil and gas industry helped support schools, hospitals and other useful activities of local and state governments.

Purchases of Mississippi materials and supplies —$7 million worth in 1951—spread more oil and gas dollars throughout the state.

The people of Mississippi can take pride in the progress record of the oil and gas industry. This progress has been possible because of the understanding and cooperation of local and state governments and the favorable attitude of all Mississippians.

Tax programs have been fair and reasonable and with a continuation of this spirit of cooperation, the oil and gas industry can help create even greater prosperity in our state. There will be more jobs, more payrolls and more new dollars in circulation to help every Mississippian.

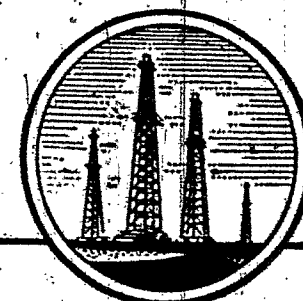

The oil and gas exploration in 1919 included drilling 185 wildcat wells from which only 14 discoveries resulted. Another 190 wells were drilled in known fields—23 were gas wells, 102 oil producers, and 65 were completely dry holes.

The oil and gas industry to-date has discovered 1754 producing wells in Mississippi. Wells have been drilled in 77 out of the state's 82 counties.

Costly experience has taught the industry that there are extra risks involved in Mississippi oil and gas development. Average depth required to bring in a producer in this state is 7,000, compared with a national average of 3,800 feet.

A freezer is not a "bank" or safety deposit vault where food can be kept indefinitely. The deposit loses value if kept overlong. Best returns come from a regular turnover of food. This is true of beef, pork and lamb as well as other food deposits.

POLISHING FURNITURE There is a great controversy over the best materials and methods for polishing furniture. But experts agree on two points: 1) Surfaces must be clean and free from dust before they are polished, and 2) results depend on rubbing.

You need not polish furniture more than two or three times a year, if you give good in-between care. The rubbing between polishings and when dusting builds up the luster and brings out the grain and beauty of the wood. The best formula for success in giving furniture a lovely sheen is persistence, pressure and elbow grease.

To polish carved wood, you may apply polish with a soft brush, sparingly—to prevent an accumulation in the crevices. Use a stiff brush covered with flannel for the first polishing, then buff with a soft polishing cloth.

Furniture polish of good quality imparts a high luster on furniture that has no wax. Apply the polish lightly in a thin film and let dry. Then polish well with the grain, using a dry, soft cloth.

You can make your own polish by mixing equal parts of linseed oil and turpentine. Apply this sparingly. Let stand 15 minutes or so and polish well with dry, soft cloth, rubbing with the grain of the wood.

To polish furniture that is waxed, rub well at each dusting. A new application of wax is needed occasionally after the furniture has been cleaned.

Liquid or paste wax (not self-polishing), gives wood a soft luster. Apply it sparingly, let it stand for 15 minutes or so and polish with the grain. Use a dry, soft cloth. Liquid wax cleans and polishes at the same time. The polishing clothes can become dust-ers.

HOMEMADE WAX To make your own wax you will need:
1/4 lb. beeswax
1 pint turpentine
Boiled linseed oil

Melt beeswax (pure) in a double boiler. Remove from heat and when slightly cool, add turpentine. Stir mixture until it is like thick batter. The addition of a little boiled linseed oil will make it resistant to water.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES
By MISS MADGE ALLRED
How appetizing beef will be when it comes from the home freezer or locker depends on how long it is stored and how it is wrapped—as well as on the storage temperature.

Recent tests showed that beef stored six months at from zero to 10 degrees Fahrenheit was much better than that stored a year. A temperature at least as low as zero should be maintained for storage longer than six months. Do not overload freezer.

Moisture-vapor-resistant wrapping is highly important for keeping meat attractive and palatable, even for relatively short storage. Tests of wrappings at the Missouri Experiment Station found heavy aluminum foil best and waxed paper poorest.

THE STATE OF THE UNION

With the reassembling of the Congress we resume our fifteen year habit of writing this weekly column for the benefit of those who are interested in our opinion on the doings in Washington.

The Congress reassembled on Tuesday, January 8. This being the Second Session of the 82nd Congress, no recognition was necessary.

On Wednesday, the 9th, President Truman in accordance with the Constitutional Mandate addressed a joint session of the Congress on the state of the Union. The President's address was just what might be expected considering the world conditions and the further fact that this is a Presidential election year. In fact, the President referred to the fact that this was a Presidential election year and that politics would play a part in everything that came up for consideration. This was one of the most realistic statements in the whole speech. And the President went on to discuss politics at some length.

1. The President stressed his opinion that the threat of World War III is still very real. Therefore, we should continue unabated our efforts to meet that threat with a build-up of military force and supplies, with emphasis on air power.

2. The President pointed out in this connection that the stepped-up production of military goods would curb civilian production for at least two years.

3. On the domestic side of the program the most noticeable thing was that the President, the chief advocate of the civil rights program, brushed this controversial matter aside with a very general statement. He did not, as in previous years, call for an enactment of the FEPC, anti-lynching laws and the abolition of the poll tax.

4. On the other hand domestic issues which have claimed so much attention in recent months, corruption in government, the Chief Executive said that corrupt officials would be weeded out. He did not go into details about this but since then he has advised the country that he has abandoned the plan for a commission to be set up for this clean up program and announced that Attorney General McGrath would do whatever cleaning up was done.

5. Mr. Truman again pointed to the danger of inflation and asked the cooperation of the Congress in an effort to curb this evil. He failed however to spell out just what he thought Congress should do and health with this very important matter only in general terms. We were among those who were disappointed in the President's failing to call for all-out across-the-board controls. We still believe that inflation is a greater threat to this country than the threat of an all-out Russian war. We still adhere, as one who has long advocated across-the-board controls to the opinion that the spiral of inflation if permitted to continue will destroy the economy of this country and thus play into Russia's real goal and objective, the taking over of this country through economic disorders and hungry bellies.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

by
W. F. Bond, Commissioner State Department Public Welfare

During the political campaign last summer, a good deal was said by some of the candidates about raising the maximum amount allowed a needy aged person under the law now from $50.00 a month to $50.00 a month, this being the highest amount on which the government will cooperate.

If this change is made in the law, only those whose needs are very great with no other possible source to draw on will get the maximum amount. Up to $20.00 a month, the Federal authorities give $3.00 for $1.00 and from there on to $50.00 a month, it is dollar for dollar. In a $50.00 monthly grant, the state, therefore, would put up $20.00 and the Federal authorities $30.00. The average monthly grant is now only $18.63, the lowest in the United States. It should be more than that.

Prepare Corn Land Now For Feed

By HOWARD SIMMONS

CORN FOR FEED

Any farmer would do well to make his plans now to prepare his corn land early, to fertilize according to Experiment Station recommendations and to get the corn planted at the right time.

The weather still remains the number one factor over which farmers have no control. But many corn failures are blamed on dry weather, when the real trouble was lack of land preparation, inadequate fertilization and poor cultivation.

The time is past when a farmer must wait until he gathers his corn to see if he has made any corn. With the information available to him today from his experiment stations, he can make his plans, plant on good corn land, follow the recommendations and pretty well tell how much corn he will harvest.

FARM INCOME TAX, 1951
Farmers, as well as other individuals, who had $600 or more gross income in 1951 must file an income tax return under provision of the Internal Revenue Act of 1951.

If at least two-thirds of the gross income is from farming, and the business year started January 1, the farmer has two choices. He may either file the return and pay the tax on or before January 31, 1952. Or, he could have filed an estimate of the tax, paid this estimate by January 15, 1952, and then file the return and pay the balance due by March 15, 1952.

For farmers who plan to file their returns and pay the tax by January 31, 1952, a new extension publication called "Farmer's 1951 Income Tax" is available at the county agent's office. Ask for Extension Publication 206. This publication will be of help to farmers with their March 15 returns also.

JANUARY GARDENING
The Number One January gardening job is to get the garden ready for early planting. The January planting list includes carrots, leaf and head lettuce, mustard, onions, English Peas, radish, turnip, tender greens and parsley.

In your 1952 garden, one of the best ways to stretch your family's food dollar, resolve to use only the best seed, to use commercial fertilizer as well as backyard manure and to side dress vegetables when they are 2 to 4 inches tall, to thin plants to proper spacing, to mulch long-season crops as beans and tomatoes, and to harvest regularly and properly to keep plants producing.

Plan a full garden for at least 8 to 9 months and something green from the garden every month in 1952. Don't waste anything—use it or give it to someone.

ACCIDENTS
Accidents are listed as the fifth cause of deaths in Mississippi. Accidents are certainly not caused by lack of medical facilities, but by our own carelessness. Start 1952 off by removing accident hazards on your farm and in your home. Don't take chances around animals, machinery or anywhere. Accidents are costly in time, money and suffering.

ORDER CHICKS EARLY
We have to ship in, from out-of-state, more than half of our eating eggs and hatching eggs. We need a lot more good, farm flocks in Mississippi.

It's too late to wish for pullets for this winter's egg supply on your farm, but it's not too late to plan for next year's pullets. Now is the time to plan for pullets to go in the laying house next fall. Order good chicks now for delivery in February and March.

The physical education director in the public school was busy last week completing the program of testing of hearing throughout the entire school system. This was made possible by the furnishing of an audio-meter by the U. S. Public Health Department through our local health unit. The Public Health Dept. brought this equipment to the Bay St. Louis High School and also sent one of their instructors down to teach the operation of this machine. This is part of the physical check-up program which is being carried on in the Bay St. Louis Public schools this year.

On Tuesday morning of this week, we began giving more of our mental maturity tests in the high school. The Bay St. Louis Public School this year is carrying out a complete testing program under the direction of Dr. James F. McKee, a member of the faculty of Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg, Miss. It is the plan to administer the mental maturity tests throughout the entire school system along with the standard achievement tests. The financing of this testing program is being taken care of through the cooperation of our local Parent-Teacher Association.

The local Board of Trustees, in cooperation with the Mayor and Commissioners, is going forward with plans for the construction of a new elementary building at the earliest possible date. An architect has been selected and has been authorized to draw preliminary plans for this new construction.

The athletic department of the Bay St. Louis high school is again sponsoring the House of David Basketball Team who will appear in the Bay High gym January 18. They will meet the O. K. Transfer Team of Gulfport, who have been regional winners in independent teams on the coast for the past three years. This game will be preceded by a girls independent team beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Christmas Eve was a big night for Bay High seniors. Their rings, ordered early in October, finally arrived. The seniors gathered at the home of Sylvia Horton, and after collecting money and getting stray seniors together, Mrs. Georgette Hall, senior sponsor, gave out the rings.

"The Jesters," senior-junior dramatic club is planning to present a series of short comedy skits in assembly. The group is also working on a short play entitled "Life of the Party," which will be presented during the spring.
